CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

1. UNFAIR COMPETITION (unlawful conduct)
2. UNFAIR COMPETITION (unfair conduct)
3. NEGLIGENT MAINTENANCE OF PREMISES

The Plaintiffs and other members of the Class herein allege as follows:

I.

INTRODUCTION

1. Plaintiffs are tenants in rental properties located in Fresno County, CA, which are managed by JD Home Rentals ("JD Homes"). Upon information and belief, JD Homes is a fictitious business name for a real estate property management company that is owned, operated and/or managed by John, David, and Bryce Hovannisian, members of three generations of the same family (collectively "the Hovannisians" or the "Hovannisian defendants").

2. Upon information and belief, JD Homes manages a vast portfolio of grossly untenantable residential rental property throughout Central California, all of which is owned by one or more of the Hovannisians; by members of their immediate families; or by entities which are owned and/or controlled by a Hovannisian defendant, including partnerships and limited liability companies. Untenantable residential rental property or properties, as used herein, means properties not meeting the standards of California Civil Code Section 1941.1 or its incorporated statutes (Health and Safety Code Sections17920.3 and 17920.10) (hereafter collectively referred to as "California's tenancy statutes").

Upon information and belief, JD Homes manages more than 3000 rental properties in the City of Fresno alone, which are home to as many as 10,000 individuals. [1]

3. On its website, JD Homes proudly touts itself as a provider of safe, affordable housing: "JD Home Rentals is proud to provide low-income housing for those of our community who do not have the funds to pay higher rents, and offer our tenants the opportunity to live in an environment where they do not have to pay high rent...It is against JD Home Rentals' policy to rent units in substandard condition. JD Home Rentals is committed to allowing our tenants to live peacefully, without interference from us, or others, but also provide timely and effective repairs within the meaning of the law when they are needed." [2]

4. Upon information and belief, despite these representations, JD Homes is one of the largest providers of untenantable residential rental properties in California. Rather than providing safe, affordable housing to low-income tenants, JD Homes maintains a huge portfolio of untenantable housing, which it rents to unsuspecting tenants without bringing it into compliance with applicable health and safety laws. When tenants request repairs, their requests go unanswered for months, and sometimes years. When JD Homes chooses to make repairs, it does so in an inadequate, unprofessional manner, making only cosmetic changes that do not address the underlying habitability issues. When tenants seek repairs or make complaints to code enforcement officials, JD Homes often retaliates by raising the rent, or otherwise harassing and intimidating the tenants.

5. Upon information and belief, since the housing crisis in 2008, JD Homes has added hundreds of foreclosed properties to its inventory, substantially increasing the number of untenantable properties it has available for rent. Upon information and belief, the Hovannisians purchase these untenantable properties for pennies on the dollar on the courthouse steps. Rather than repairing them, JD Homes adds them to its list of available properties, and lets them stand vacant unless and until a tenant applies to rent one.[3] Although JD Homes promises to make these premises habitable within two weeks' of a tenant filing a rental application, upon information and belief, JD Homes makes only cosmetic repairs, such as painting the interior and replacing the carpeting. As a result, JD Homes' inventory of untenantable properties continues to grow, destroying the character of neighborhoods which Fresno has fought hard to revitalize.

6. Upon information and belief, JD Homes manages more than one hundred vacant rental units in Fresno, in addition to thousands more which are occupied. In Fresno neighborhoods such as Lowell, there are entire blocks of JD Homes' rentals which are boarded up, substandard, uninhabitable, and untenantable based on their visibly dilapidated condition, which includes sagging roofs; lack of adequate weatherproofing; uneven foundations; faulty electrical wiring; broken sidewalks; and corroded air conditioning units, among other code enforcement violations.[4] Similarly, throughout Fresno there are neighborhoods where block after block is dominated by occupied untenantable buildings which are under the management of JD Homes.[5]

7. Within the city of Fresno, the Community Revitalization Department ("Revitalization") is tasked with the responsibility of enforcing housing standards. Upon information and belief, in the past several years, the vast majority of untenantable housing complaints received by the Revitalization Department concern JD Homes' properties. Given JD Homes' huge array of holdings, and the deplorable conditions in which those properties are maintained, the Revitalization Department has been overwhelmed and unable to keep up with the efficient and thorough enforcement of health and safety standards at JD Homes' properties.

8. Upon information and belief, beginning at an exact date unknown to Plaintiffs, JD Homes began an unlawful and unfair business practice of renting untenantable housing units in the City of Fresno to vulnerable, low-income tenants. Upon information and belief, JD Homes engages in a pattern and practice of violating the basic housing rights of its tenants by refusing to make its rental properties habitable; refusing to comply with all applicable health and safety laws; and taking advantage of, harassing, and retaliating against any tenants who assert their rights and request repairs. In bringing this action, Plaintiffs seek to enjoin Defendants from: 1) continuing to maintain JD Homes' rental properties in a decrepit and unsafe condition in violation of health, fire, building, and safety laws; and 2) retaliating against or harassing their tenants when those tenants choose to assert their legal rights. This request for an injunction is brought on behalf of Plaintiffs and similarly situated tenants pursuant to California Business and Professions Code Section 17203.

II.

III.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

25. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over this action pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure Section 410.10 because Defendants are transacting business and committing the acts and omissions complained of in California.

26. Venue is proper in Fresno County and this judicial district pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure Sections 392 and 395(a) because the properties at issue are located in this judicial district; the majority of the acts and omissions complained of arose in Fresno County, CA; and Plaintiffs and similarly situated tenants sustained injuries to their rights within this judicial district.

IV.

COMMON ALLEGATIONS

A. Defendants Have Been in the Business of Owning, Leasing, and/or Managing Untenantable Rental Properties in the State of California for Many Years

27. The named Plaintiffs, on behalf of themselves and other similarly situated tenants, reallege and incorporate by reference all the allegations set forth in the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though set forth in full.

28. Upon information and belief, throughout the Relevant Period and for many years prior, Defendants have been in the business of owning, leasing, operating, and /or managing low-income rental properties throughout the State of California, including in the County of Fresno. Upon information and belief, JD Homes' business model is to lease a large number of units at extremely low rents to tenants who have few housing options, while failing to invest sufficient money to repair and maintain the properties in tenantable condition, so as to maximize their profits.

29. Upon information and belief, in exchange for low rent, JD Homes' tenants obtain the right to live in grossly substandard housing with little or no ability to effect repairs. Upon information and belief, JD Homes targets tenants who are vulnerable and afraid to assert their rights.

30. Upon information and belief, Plaintiffs allege that during the Relevant Period, the Hovannisians, individually, and through entities owned and/or controlled by them (including JD Homes) have routinely maintained and operated their rental properties in Fresno County, California in violation of the California Health and Safety Code and the California Civil Code by: 1) failing to keep their properties habitable and fit for occupancy; 2) failing to abate untenantable living conditions after receiving notice of them from tenants and/or the Revitalization department; and 3) retaliating and harassing tenants, including Plaintiffs and others similarly situated, when they attempt to enforce their legal rights.[6]

B. Plaintiffs Have Suffered From Severely Dilapidated, Untenantable, and Unsafe Conditions at Their JD Homes' Rentals

31. Plaintiffs have suffered from severely dilapidated, untenantable, and unsafe conditions in their JD Homes' Rentals, including, but not limited to: (1) severe roach infestations; (2) substantial mold growth; (3) collapsed ceilings; (4) water-damaged walls, ceilings, and flooring; (5) lack of proper security in common areas; (6) criminal activity in common areas; (8) non-original construction without proper permits; (9) corroded piping; (10) leaking roofs; (11) long standing, pervasive, and visibly dilapidated sink and bathtub enamel; (12) evidence of raw sewage leakage; (13) out-of-date fire extinguishers; (14) unsanitary construction debris blocking emergency means of egress for habitable space; (15) unprofessional, unfinished, and failed work on window repairs evidenced by leakage and damage; (16) rust and corrosion around metal window frames; (17) loose ground connectors on outlets near sinks constituting shock and fire hazards; (18) large holes in walls constituting a fire hazard and allowing vermin to enter; (19) undermined walkways due to improper irrigation and ensuing erosion; (20) rotted, cracked, loose, and detaching wood material on windows; (21) rain gutters clogged with dead plant growth; (22) defective downspouts which both cause and aggravate mold conditions and excessive dampness in buildings; (23) large stains on ceilings consistent with water intrusion from a failed roof; (24) evidence of painting and caulking as a means of abatement of previous mold growth; (25) plumbing lines missing flanges at entry point, allowing moisture and vermin into structures; and (26) stagnant water and other liquids in outdoor common areas with visible mosquito larvae.

[6] Among the specific statutes JD Homes has violated are Health and Safety Code §§17980 et seq.,13260 and 17926; Civil Code §§1714, 1927, 1941, 1941.1, 1941.3, 1942.4, and 1942.5.

C. Other JD Homes' Rentals Suffer From the Same Types of Defects

32. Other properties offered for lease and leased by JD Homes in the City of Fresno contain similar defective and dangerous conditions, including, without limitation, some or all of the following, all of which render the properties substandard pursuant to California law[7]:

1) visible structural damage, including bowed walls and ceilings, large holes in ceilings, and sinking floors; 2) extensive water damage to ceilings, floors, and areas under and around sinks, showers, and toilets; 3) excessive and visible mold on ceilings, floors, and walls; 4) leaking pipes connected to sinks and toilets; 5) improperly installed and loose toilets; 6) kitchen and bathroom flooring that is old, cracking, and corroded; 7) carpeting that is old, dirty, matted, stained, and constitutes a trip hazard; 8) dilapidated kitchen and bathroom cabinetry, with doors off hinges or otherwise inoperable; 9) non-working appliances; heaters; and air-conditioning units; 10) inadequate and exposed lighting; 11) exposed light sockets and electrical wiring; 12) missing or inoperable closet doors; 13) doors that do not fit property into door jambs; 14) non-working locks on doors and windows; 15) broken, inoperable, missing, and/or uninsulated windows; 16) nonworking smoke alarms; 17) non-existent carbon monoxide detectors and alarms; 18) unstable and unsafe walkways; 19) unstable and unsafe balconies; 20) leaking and damaged roofs; 21) lack of adequate weather protection; 22) filthy and unsafe common areas; 23) and infestation by cockroaches, bedbugs, mice, rats, and/or other vermin.

33. The defective conditions in these other JD Homes' rental properties were not caused by the wrongful or abnormal use of the premises by the tenants or by anyone acting under the authority of the tenants.

D. Defendants Had Knowledge of the Uninhabitable Conditions at Their Rental Properties, Yet Failed To Abate Those Conditions For Years

34. Defendants received actual or constructive notice of the defects in Plaintiffs' homes and in its other rental properties in Fresno through: 1) notices served on them by the City of Fresno or other government agencies; 2) the verbal and written notices communicated to them by Plaintiffs; 3) the verbal and written notices communicated to them, or their agents, by other tenants, including prior tenants; and 4) their agents' own personal observations.

35. Despite Plaintiffs and similarly situated tenants complaining to JD Homes' property managers, calling the JD Homes' office to report problems and to request repairs, and filing complaints with the City, throughout the Relevant Period, Defendants have ignored the multitude of habitability problems and violations of California's tenancy statutes at their properties and have failed to respond to tenant complaints or to make the necessary repairs, other than to make unprofessional, shoddy and often unpermitted repairs when ordered to make repairs by the city. Instead, despite awareness of these problems, Defendants have consciously ignored their obligations to maintain their properties in a safe and habitable condition, allowing their properties to fall into a further state of dilapidation and disrepair, and to become increasingly dangerous and unfit for human habitation.

36. Despite Defendants' awareness of the habitability problems in JD Homes' rental units, those units remain untenantable and in a state of extreme neglect and disrepair. The untenantable condition of JD Homes' rental units has an extremely adverse impact on the low-income tenants who reside in those units, including the named Plaintiffs and others similarly situated.

E. Defendants Adopted and Implemented An Unlawful and Unfair Business Scheme of Maintaining Their Rental Properties in An Untenantable State and Harassing Tenants Who Attempt To Enforce Their Rights

37. Upon information and belief, instead of investing in routine maintenance and repairs when necessary to make its rental units habitable, Defendants have engaged in an unfair business practice which consists of the following scheme: 1) purchasing untenantable properties, often for cash, in distressed neighborhoods; 2) maintaining an inventory of untenantable properties which tenants can inspect and then apply to lease; 3) after tenants file a rental application, promising to repair impossibly dilapidated properties so that they are in move-in condition within two weeks; 4) targeting vulnerable, low-income individuals; 5) promising low rent in exchange for tenants being able to live "peacefully" and without "interference"; 6) ignoring maintenance requests, and/or telling tenants that they are on " the list" for repairs until tenants stop complaining; 7) making only shoddy, superficial, unprofessional, cosmetic repairs after receiving notices of violation from the City of Fresno or tenant complaints; and 8) raising rent; threatening eviction; and/or otherwise harassing and retaliating against tenants who attempt to enforce their legal rights by complaining about the untenantable conditions in their units.

38. Upon information and belief, by targeting low-income individuals who are vulnerable, JD Homes is able to further its unfair and illegal scheme of renting untenantable homes in violation of California law, because its tenants are frightened and not likely, or less likely, to complain for fear of being homeless, or suffering other adverse consequences if they complain. Thus, although rents are "low", and JD Homes' boasts that its tenants are able to live "peacefully" and without undue "interference" from their landlord, in reality, tenants in JD Homes' rentals are neglected and forced to live in untenantable housing which is not fit for human habitation.

39. Upon information and belief, given the enormity of JD Homes' rental portfolio of low-income housing in Fresno, the Revitalization Department and other city officials do not have the resources to monitor and effectively enforce code violations by JD Homes. As a result, JD Homes has been able to perpetuate its unlawful and unfair business practices for years, with little outside interference. Further, the most vulnerable renters in Fresno find it difficult, if not impossible, to avoid renting from JD Homes, and/or to obtain safe, affordable housing.

40. Upon information and belief, Plaintiffs and other current and former JD Homes' tenants in Fresno, California, during the Relevant Period have suffered economic, physical, and emotional harm as a result of the dilapidated, untenantable, and unsafe conditions in their rental units, and the harassment they are forced to endure from Defendants. The harm suffered by Plaintiffs and others similarly situated includes, but is not limited to: 1) having to pay rent for an untenantable unit; 2) incurring expenses for making their own repairs; 3) incurring expenses for medical bills and the cost of treatment; 3) sustaining physical injuries including respiratory problems, allergies, infections, bites from vermin, insomnia; depression; and anxiety; and 4) suffering from extreme emotional distress including fear, frustration, humiliation, and hopelessness.

41. Upon information and belief, Defendants have a business practice of purchasing distressed rental properties, making cosmetic repairs, renting them out in an untenantable condition at very low rents to low-income individuals who are without the means to pursue relief, and failing to provide sufficient capital to repair and maintain the properties so as to make a profit with as little investment of capital as possible. Upon information and belief, if Defendants are permitted to continue their unlawful business practices, additional tenants will be subjected to uninhabitable, unsafe, and untenantable housing conditions in the future.

V.

CLASS ALLEGATIONS

A. Class Allegations for the First Class for Injunctive Relief

42. The named Plaintiffs bring this action on their own behalf and on behalf of a similarly situated class defined as:

> All persons who, within the past four years have, or presently or in the future, are or will be residents in a property owned or managed by any one or more of the defendants within the County of Fresno, California.

43. The persons in the Class are so numerous that the joinder of all such persons is impracticable. During the four-year period prior to the date of filing of this Complaint, it is estimated that more than 10,000 individuals have resided in rental housing located in Fresno, California, which was managed by JD Homes.

44. The members of this Class are ascertainable and capable of being identified from the records of the Defendants. The disposition of their claims in a class action is therefore a benefit to the parties and to the Court.

45. There is a well-defined community of interest in the questions of law and fact affecting the plaintiff class in that every member of the Class has been subject to the same pattern of illegal conduct alleged below and is entitled to injunctive relief because of the Defendants' illegal conduct. Common questions of law and fact predominate over questions that affect only individual class members. Proof of a common or single state of facts will establish the right of each member of the Class to recover.

46. There is no plain, speedy, or adequate remedy other than the maintenance of this class action because Plaintiffs are informed and believe that the damage to each plaintiff is relatively small, and that the class members tend to be low-income tenants, who are often afraid to come forward to enforce their rights, making it economically unfeasible and impracticable for them to pursue remedies other than by class action. Consequently, there would be a failure of justice but for the maintenance of the present class action.

47. The prosecution of individual remedies by members of the plaintiff class would tend to establish independent standards of conduct for Defendants and would result in the impairment of class members' rights and the disposition of their interests through actions to which they were not parties.

48. The claims of the named Plaintiffs are typical of those of the Class, and the named Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately represent the interests of the Class.

B. Class Allegations for the Second Class for Injunctive Relief

49. The named Plaintiffs bring this action on their own behalf and on behalf of a similarly situated class of persons ("Class #2") defined as:

> All persons who, within the past four years have, or presently, or in the future, are or will be the holders of a lease in a property owned or managed by any one or more of the defendants within the County of Fresno, California, and resided or resides in a property for which they are entitled to a rent rebate due to the untenantable conditions of the property as defined by California Civil Code § 1941.1, and its incorporated statutes.

50. The persons in Class #2 are so numerous that the joinder of all such persons is impracticable. During the four-year period prior to the date of filing of this Complaint, it is estimated that more than 10,000 individuals have resided in rental housing located in Fresno, California, which was managed by JD Homes.

51. The members of Class #2 are ascertainable and capable of being identified from the records of the Defendants. The disposition of their claims in a class action is therefore a benefit to the parties and to the Court.

52. There is a well-defined community of interest in the questions of law and fact affecting the plaintiff class in that every member Class #2 has been subject to the same pattern of illegal conduct alleged below; is entitled to injunctive relief; and each has suffered rent overcharges and physical and emotional injuries because of the Defendants' illegal conduct. Common questions of law and fact predominate over questions that affect only individual class members. Proof of a common or single state of facts will establish the right of each member of Class #2 to recover.

53. There is no plain, speedy, or adequate remedy other than the maintenance of this class action because Plaintiffs are informed and believe that the damage to each plaintiff is relatively small, and that the class members tend to be low-income tenants, who are often afraid to come forward to enforce their rights, making it economically unfeasible and impracticable for them to pursue remedies other than by class action. Consequently, there would be a failure of justice but for the maintenance of the present class action.

54. The prosecution of individual remedies by members of the plaintiff class would tend to establish independent standards of conduct for Defendants and would result in the impairment of class members' rights and the disposition of their interests through actions to which they were not parties.

55. The claims of the named Plaintiffs are typical of those of Class #2, and the named Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately represent the interests of Class #2.

VI.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

VIOLATION OF BUSINESS & PROFESSIONS CODE §§17200, ET. SEQ.

(Unlawful Conduct Prong)

(By Plaintiffs Against All Defendants and DOES 1 through 100)

56. Plaintiffs, individually and on behalf of the Classes, reallege and incorporate by reference all the allegations set forth in the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though set forth in full.

57. The California Unfair Competition Law ("UCL") prohibits "unfair competition," which is defined by Business & Professions Code Section 17200 as including "any unlawful, unfair or fraudulent business act or practice..."

58. The actions of Defendants, as alleged in this Complaint, constitute illegal and unlawful business practices committed in violation of Business & Professions Code Sections 17200, et seq. Indeed, Defendants' conduct is forbidden by law, including civil, municipal, statutory, regulatory and/or court-made.

59. Specifically, Defendants, and each of them, have violated, and continue to violate, the UCL by engaging in the following unlawful business acts and practices during the Class Period, including:

a. Permitting rental units to be maintained in untenantable conditions and continuing to collect rent, in violation of the Civil Code, including Sections 1941, 1941.1, 1941.3 and 1942.4 and Health & Safety Code Sections17980, et seq.

b. Instead of investing in routine maintenance and repairs when necessary to make its rental units tenantable, Defendants engaged in a scheme, described in detail above in paragraphs 30 and 37 above, that caused, permitted and maintained untenantable rental units, in violation of the Civil Code, including Sections 1714, 1940.2, 1941,1941.1, 1941.3, 1942.5, 1954 and the Health & Safety Code, including Sections 17920.3 and 17920.10.

60. There were reasonably available alternatives to further Defendants' legitimate business interests, other than the conduct described herein.

61. Plaintiffs and other members of the putative Class have suffered injury in fact and have lost money or property as a result of Defendants' unlawful conduct, because they paid money, and continue to pay money, to Defendants in the form of rent and deposits for severely dilapidated, untenantable and unsafe conditions at their rental units.

62. Pursuant to Business & Professions Code Section 17203, Plaintiffs and the members of the Class seek an order of this Court enjoining Defendants from continuing to engage, use, or employ its uniform scheme of renting and maintaining their rental properties in an untenantable and uninhabitable state and harassing tenants who attempt to enforce their rights. Likewise, Plaintiff and the members of the Class seek an order requiring Defendants to inspect and repair their properties under the supervision of an impartial third-party monitor who shall provide monthly progress reports to the Court until such time as JD Homes brings all of its Fresno residential rental properties in compliance with all applicable health, safety, fire, building, and housing codes.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

VIOLATION OF BUSINESS & PROFESSIONS CODE §§17200, ET SEQ.

(Unfair Conduct Prong)

(By Plaintiffs Against All Defendants and DOES 1 through 100)

63. Plaintiffs individually and on behalf of the Classes, reallege and incorporate by reference all the allegations set forth in the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though set forth in full.

64. The California Unfair Competition Law ("UCL") prohibits "unfair competition," which is defined by Business & Professions Code Section 17200 as including "any unlawful, unfair or fraudulent business act or practice..."

65. The actions of Defendants, as alleged in this Complaint, constitute illegal, unlawful and unfair business practices committed in violation of Business & Professions Code Sections 17200, et seq. Indeed, Defendants' conduct is forbidden by law, including civil, municipal, statutory, regulatory and/or court-made.

66. Specifically, Defendants, and each of them, have violated, and continue to violate, the UCL by engaging in the following unlawful and unfair business acts and practices during the Class Period:

a. Permitting rental units to be maintained in untenantable conditions and continuing to collect rent, in violation of the Civil Code, including Sections 1941, 1941.1, 1941.3 and 1942.4 and Health & Safety Code Sections 17920, et seq.

b. Instead of investing in routine maintenance and repairs when necessary to make its rental units habitable, Defendants engaged in a scheme, described in detail above in paragraphs 30 and 37 above, that caused, permitted and maintained untenantable rental units, in violation of the Civil Code, including Sections 1714, 1940.2, 1941, 1941.1, 1941.3, 1942.5, 1954 and Health & Safety Code, including Sections 17920.3 and 17920.1.

67. Defendants' conduct as described in this Complaint also violated the established public policy of the State of California, which, among other things, seeks to avoid the creation and maintenance of public nuisances, to protect tenants from having to reside in untenantable rental units, to maintain the affordable housing stock and to prevent actual and constructive unlawful evictions.

68. Defendants' conduct as described in this Complaint has been immoral, unethical, oppressive, and unscrupulous in that Defendants have, among other things, intentionally and recklessly failed to maintain occupied premises in safe, sanitary, habitable and tenantable conditions that have contributed to the deterioration of whole neighborhoods and communities.

69. There were reasonably available alternatives to further Defendant's legitimate business interests, other than the conduct described herein.

70. Plaintiffs and other members of the putative Class have suffered injury in fact and have lost money or property as a result of Defendants' unfair conduct, because they paid money, and continue to pay money, to Defendants in the form of rent and deposits for severely dilapidated, untenantable and unsafe conditions at their rental units.

71. The injuries to Plaintiffs and members of the putative Class who have lived and are currently living in Defendants' rental properties have been substantial, as thousands of former and current tenants have been subjected to hazards engendered by the dilapidated, untenenantable and/or unsafe conditions at their rental units.

72. These injuries to Plaintiffs and members of the putative Class are not outweighed by any countervailing benefits to these former and current tenants, in that Defendants could have repaired and maintained the rental properties without causing Plaintiffs and the Class to be exposed to these untentable and uninhabitable conditions or violating their rights.

73. The injuries to Plaintiffs and members of the putative Class, including living in untenantable rental units and being subjected to violations of their rights, are not ones these former and current tenants could have reasonably avoided, as they have no ability to control the condition of Defendants' rental properties or the actions of Defendants in violating their rights.

74. Defendants' acts of unfair business practices present a continuing threat to the public's health, safety and welfare. The Plaintiffs and members of the putative Class have no adequate remedy at law, and unless Defendants are permanently enjoined and restrained by order of this Court, Defendants will continue to commit the acts of unlawful business practices described herein, thereby causing further irreparable injury to the public's health, safety and welfare.

75. Pursuant to Business & Professions Code Section 17203, Plaintiffs and the members of the Class seek an order of this Court enjoining Defendants from continuing to engage, use, or employ its uniform scheme of renting and maintaining their rental properties in an untenantable and uninhabitable state and harassing tenants who attempt to enforce their rights. Likewise, Plaintiffs and the members of the Class seek an order requiring Defendants to inspect and repair their properties under the supervision of an impartial third-party monitor who shall provide monthly progress reports to the Court until such time as JD Homes brings its all of its properties into compliance with applicable health and safety codes.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

NEGLIGENT MAINTENANCE OF PREMISES

(By Plaintiffs Against All Defendants and DOES 1 through 100)

76. Plaintiffs, individually and on behalf of the Classes, reallege and incorporate by reference all the allegations set forth in the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though set forth in full.

77. Plaintiffs have held a leasehold interest in and have been tenants of the property while the defendants named in this cause of action have owned and/or managed it.

78. As landowners and/or managers of land, defendants owed a duty of care under common law and California Civil Code §1714 to exercise due care in the management of their property so as to avoid foreseeable injury to others. This duty required defendants to comply with all building, health, fire and safety codes, ordinances, regulations, and other laws applying to the maintenance and operation of residential rental housing.

79. Defendants have breached their common law and statutory duties of due care by failing to correct the untenantable and substandard conditions. Defendants knew, or reasonably should have known that plaintiffs would be injured as a result of their breach of the common law and statutory duties of due care.

80. As a direct and proximate result of defendants' negligent maintenance of the premises, the value of the leasehold held by each plaintiff has been diminished. Consequently, each plaintiff has been damaged in an amount to be proven at trial.

81. As a direct and proximate result of the defendants' conduct, each plaintiff has suffered and/or continues to suffer illness, physical injury, mental stress, emotional distress, anxiety, annoyance and discomfort, property damage, and lost income, all to each plaintiff's damage in an amount to be proven at trial, but which amount is within the jurisdictional requirements of this Court.

82. Unless defendants, and each of them, are restrained by order of this Court, it will be necessary for plaintiffs to commence many successive actions against defendants, and each of them, to secure compensation for damages sustained, thus requiring a multiplicity of suits, and plaintiffs will daily be threatened with the above-referenced conditions.

83. Unless defendants, and each of them, are enjoined from continuing their course of conduct, plaintiffs will suffer irreparable injury in that plaintiffs will be deprived of the comfortable enjoyment of their property.

84. Plaintiffs have no plain, speedy, or adequate remedy at law, and injunctive relief is expressly authorized by Sections 526 and 731 of the California Code of Civil Procedure.

85. Defendants' acts and omissions have been grossly negligent, malicious, and oppressive, thereby entitling each plaintiff to punitive damages in an amount to be determined at trial.
